

If I Hadn't Seen the West

*Words and Music Copyright 2003 Joyce Woodson
Row to Hoe Music, BMI*

Intro: C Cmi G6 Emi A7 A7 Ami D7

Verse 1:

G6 Cmi6 G6 Cmi6 G6 Cmi6 G6 Cmi6
If I hadn't seen a crimson sunset turn the world `to a shimmering dream

G6 Cmi6 G6 Emi A7 Ami D7
If I hadn't heard the canyon towhee bird sing his song for me

G6 Cmi6 G6 Cmi6 G6 D7 G6 G7
Wide open spaces that fill me up and leave me feeling blessed

C Cmi G6 Emi A7 A7 Ami D7
Oh, I could've lived any place in the world if I hadn't seen the West

Verse 2:

G6 Cmi6 G6 Cmi6 G6 Cmi6 G6 Cmi6
There's a river that spills through Sedona's hills where the red rock looks over the green

G6 Cmi6 G6 Emi A7 Ami D7
And above Santa Fe's hills of sage is the bluest sky that I've ever seen

G6 Cmi6 G6 Cmi6 G6 D7 G6 G7
Canyons that echo - echo back to me say, "Your wandering heart can rest."

C Cmi G6 Emi A7 D7 G6
Oh, I could've lived any place in the world if I hadn't seen the West

Bridge:

C Cmi
Oh, I like the south there's something about

G6 D7 G6
Sweet honeysuckle in June

Emi A7
I've been north and the east has its charm

Ami D7
And darn they've got the same moon.

JOYCE WOODSON

32158 Camino Capistrano #366 San Juan Capistrano, California 92675
Phone: (949) 493-4791 email: joyce@joycewoodson.com website: www.joycewoodson.com